Winter is the season to be aware.

This week our health message is about washing your hands. We can help prevent germs spreading if we follow a few simple health practices.

Our focus at the moment is being KIND. This is a great follow on from last week. We have been discussing how kindness is active, a conscious choice we make every day. Being the person who sees the positives. The one who uses kind words and actions with others.

office!! $5:00

Heating pipes and boiler work.

Work is going well on addressing the leaks in our pipe work from Kauri Block to Kowhai Block.

Thank you for your continued support with using alternative entries. We have been very proud of the children who are showing visitors the way to reach the office.

There are 3 Entry points to school; the end of Room 11, between Kauri Block-Room3 and KCC or from Montgomery Street.

We are sorry for the inconvenience but nearly there. What is going on in our Hall?

Monday: Karate
 This new training session

Please expect a busy term of practices and possible sleep-overs.
Keep an eye out for notices if your child is part of this amazing cultural opportunity, which we are proud to host.

We will be needing lots of helpers.

We are very proud of the work the stream Kaitiaki group have been doing in our local community.

They have been busy installing spat ropes, testing the water and planting shelter along the banks providing shade for creatures in the stream.

A Healthy stream is the end goal.

It is great to see the school community supporting and working alongside the kids.

TINIBALL FESTIVAL

Congratulations to the eight Year 1 and 2 boys who competed so enthusiastically in last week's Tiniball Festival at the Walter Nash Stadium.

As the games progressed, the skill level rose higher and higher. One of the games may have been 20 – 0!! Not that the points really mattered, as participation and fun was the primary objective.

Azaryah, Will C, Oliver, John, Theo, Esera, Lyric and Tamihana,

All showed great sportsmanship and represented Koraunui School brilliantly!

A big thanks also to Mandi Cooper for providing transport and team support.
